FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

North Truro, MA- Award winning Fields Publishing announces the release of “Vietnam Journeys” by Charles Fields- a culmination of the photographer’s five years of travel through the region’s dynamic cities, seaports and countryside. Featuring a foreword by Claire Boobbyer and comprehensive text by Mary Ann Bragg, the collection offers a rare glimpse into a land once characterized by unyielding tumult.

The bustle, bright lights and modernity of Ho Chi Minh City are placed in stark contrast to the mountain splendor of cities like Sapa, or the serenity of Halong Bay, peppered with steep, stone islands and majestic caves. Marble Mountains emerge in Vietnam’s central coast; antique pagodas and temples are among the sites of historical interest in Hoi An Ancient Town- a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Fields reveals how the convergence of the old and the new, the urban and the rural, serves to create a nation both fascinating and surprising. Through “Vietnam Journeys,” Fields makes the region accessible and captivating.

A traveler and photographer for over 35 years, Fields has captured the beauty of many locales, most recently in “Nantucket: A Photographic Essay,” “Cape Cod and the National Seashore: A Photographic Essay,” and “Martha’s Vineyard: A Photographic Essay.”
